11. Grievance redressal mechanism for :
Faculty, staff and students

A system of Group Tutors is in place. Every class is divided into a group of 20 students. These group Tutors work as counselor-cum-mentors who guide the students in their day-to-day routine. This fosters kinship among students as well as creates a bond with the college.

Every last day of the month, a meeting is held with the class Tutor, who either removes the grievance on the spot or prepares the minutes and brings it to the notice of the Chief Group Tutor, who discusses the matter with the Director and settles the matter. In no case it is permitted to accumulate & remain unresolved.
